PART 11

DRIVING LICENCE

Classes of motor vehicles

3. A motor vehicle shall, for the purposes of these Regulations, be classified as set out in the First Schedule.

Provisional
licence

4. (1) A person who intends to obtain a driving licence or an endorsement shall apply to a licensing officer for a provisional driving licence in Form DLI set out in the Second Schedule.

(2) An application made under subregulation (1) shall be accompanied—

- (a) in the case of a citizen, by a copy of a national registration card or passport;
- (b) in the case of a non-citizen, by a copy of a passport or recognised identification document;
- (c) by a copy of the driving licence where the application is for an endorsement; and
- (d) where the application is for a driving licence, by a duly completed medical certificate in Form DL 2 set out in the Second Schedule.

Issue of
driving
licence

5. (1) An applicant for a provisional driving licence shall undergo a theory test conducted by a driving examiner and demonstrate that the applicant understands the— (a) rules of the road;

(b) road traffic signs;

(c) basic first aid; and

(d) controls of a motor vehicle of a class to which the application relates.

(2) A driving examiner shall ensure that the applicant satisfactorily completes a theory test in written, oral or electronic form.

(3) For purposes of subregulation (3), an applicant is considered to have satisfactorily completed a theory test if the applicant obtains a pass mark set by the Director for the class of motor vehicle or endorsement applied for.

(4) A licensing officer shall issue an applicant who passes a theory test with a provisional driving licence in Form DL 3 set out in the Second Schedule on payment of a fee set out in the Third Schedule.

(5) A licensing officer shall, before issuing a provisional driving licence under subregulation (1)—

- (a) ensure that the applicant signs the provisional driving licence; and
- (c) record the particulars relating to the holder in the register of provisional driving licences, including any restrictions on the driver relating to corrective lenses and artificial limbs.

(6) A provisional driving licence issued under these Regulations is valid for a period of three months from the date of issue.

(7) The Director shall not issue to the same person or to a single applicant more than three provisional driving licences in respect of any one category of vehicles set out in the First Schedule within a consecutive period of twelve months commencing from the first issue of the provisional driving licence.

(8) A holder of a provisional driving licence shall, on the expiry of the period specified under subregulation (4), obtain a new provisional driving licence in accordance with this regulation.

6. (1) A holder of a valid provisional driving licence shall, on the expiry of the period of seven days from the date of issue of the provisional driving licence, undertake a driving test conducted by a driving examiner on payment of a fee set out in the Third Schedule.

(2) Despite subregulation (1), the Director may permit a holder of a provisional driving licence to take a driving test before the expiry of seven days.

(3) A holder of a provisional driving licence shall before taking a driving test—

- (a) submit a valid provisional driving licence authorising the driving of a motor vehicle of a class to which the holder is being tested for; and
- (b) provide a roadworthy motor vehicle of the class for which the applicant is being tested.

(4) A holder of a provisional driving licence shall, where a holder is unable to take a driving test on a date and time given by the driving examiner, inform the driving examiner, at least twentyfour hours before the test, in writing, of the holder's inability to take the test.

(5) A holder of a provisional driving licence who fails to comply with subregulation (4) shall not take the test until after the expiry of a period of seven days from the date of the failure to take the previously scheduled test.

Pass certificate 7. (1) A driving examiner shall on, being satisfied that the holder of a provisional driving licence is competent to drive a motor vehicle of the class for which the holder was being tested for under regulation 6, issue the holder with a pass certificate in Form DL 4 set out in the Second Schedule.

(2) A pass certificate issued under subregulation (1) is valid for a period of ninety days from the date of issue.

Driving licence 8. (1) A licensing officer or any other person authorised by the Director shall, on being presented with a pass certificate and on payment of a fee set out in the Third Schedule, issue to the holder of the pass certificate a driving licence in Form DL5 set out in Second Schedule.

(2) Subject to subregulation (1), the licensing officer may, where the Agency is unable to issue a driving licence on demand, issue a holder of a pass certificate a temporary driving licence in Form DL6 set out in the Second Schedule, pending the issue of the driving licence.

(3) A temporary driving licence issued under subregulation (2) is valid for a period of three months and may be extended for a further period of three months or a longer period that the Director may determine.

(4) A licensing officer or other person authorised by the Director shall, before a driving licence is issued under subregulation (1), record the particulars of the issued driving licence in the register of driving licences.

Validity of driving licence 9. A driving licence issued under these Regulations is valid for a period of five years.

Renewal of 10. (1) A holder of a driving licence shall, within three months

driving

before the expiry of a driving licence, apply to the Director for renewal of the driving licence in Form DLI set out in the Second Schedule on payment of a fee set out in the Third Schedule.

(2) The Director shall renew a driving licence where the holder of the licence holds a driving licence to drive a class of motor vehicle to which the application for renewal relates.

(3) An application for renewal of a driving licence under subregulation (1) shall be accompanied by—

- (a) a copy of driving licence being renewed;
- (b) a medical certificate in Form DL2 duly completed within thirty days preceding the date of application for renewal in the case of an applicant who is—
 - (i) seventy years of age or older; and (ii)so requested by the Director.

(4) A holder of a driving licence who fails to apply for renewal of a driving licence within a period specified under subregulation (1) shall, in addition to the application fee under subregulation (1), pay a fee for renewal of an expired driving licence set out in the Third Schedule.

11. (1) A holder of a provisional driving licence or driving licence who loses the licence or whose licence is defaced or damaged shall, within fourteen days of the loss or damage, apply to the Director for the issuance of a duplicate provisional driving licence or a duplicate driving licence in Form DLI set out in the Second Schedule on payment of a fee set out in the Third Schedule.

Duplicate
driving
licence or

driving

(2) An application made under subregulation (1) for a duplicate provisional licence or a duplicate driving licence shall be accompanied by—

- (a) the original licence if the application relates to a licence which is defaced;
- (b) a police report, where the original licence is lost or destroyed; and
- (c) a copy of the applicant's national registration card, passport or recognised identification document.

(2) The Director shall, on receipt of an application under subregulation (1), and on being satisfied that an applicant's licence is not subject to a suspension or cancellation, issue a duplicate provisional driving licence or duplicate driving licence to an applicant in accordance with the Act.

12. (1) A person who wishes to change a name on a provisional driving licence or a driving licence shall apply, in writing, to the Director.

Change of

(2) An application made under subregulation (1) shall be accompanied by—

- (a) in the case of a citizen, a certified copy of a national registration card or passport bearing the new name of the applicant;
- (b) in the case of a non-citizen, a certified copy of a recognised identification document bearing the new names; and
- (c) an affidavit in support of the application.

(3) The Director shall, on receipt of an application under subregulation (1), and on payment of a fee set out in the Third Schedule, effect the change of name on the provisional driving licence or driving licence.
